This turn-key business opportunity is perfect for the individual looking to earn extra income. Over the last two decades, the business has provided services to local, state, and federal government, local and regional sports teams, banking, business, special events, parades, and celebrations of all kinds. The current owner started this venture from scratch, and has worked it part-time. For an individual looking to invest time and energy, this business has great growth potential on the local, regional and national level. The seller will train a new buyer through a transition period.
