This well established quaint retail business has an excellent customer base to include corporate sales. The storefront is very attractive to shoppers enjoying a day of leisure downtown. It is the place to call for personal & corporate gifts for all occasions. With its strong local history of excellence in service and delivery, this retail store has a great marketing program. The website provides customers a variety of products and the option to place orders on-line for nationwide shipping. The store has been owner operated for 11 years and the displays of products provide an enjoyable experience for all shoppers alike. Customers are encouraged to choose items to individualize their gift baskets or the friendly staff will design a one of kind basket for them. The store leases 1,650 sq. ft. The location is perfect for customers shopping and business operations. The seller will work with the new owner during the transition period. With the excellent service history, corporate accounts, location and variety of product lines, this desirable retail store is a perfect owner/operated business. This could also be a great expansion opportunity for a buyer who already owns a “like” business as an add-on store.
